

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU (Hali Hammer)

*Happy Birthday dear friend - Happy Birthday to you
Another milestone zooming past, another year bid adieu
All the joys and the triumphs, all the pain and the tears
Shaped you into the person I have loved through the years*

So here's a song for your birthday - And all of us who were part
Of our unique generation - with all that we took to heart

Yes, our hair is now different from when we let it all down
Some have less, some are white or gray
And some are Clairol brown
We had marathon parties - Grateful Dead, Purple Haze
Now a nap is a blessing to those who stayed up for days

*Happy birthday dear friend - Happy birthday to you
Another milestone zooming past, another year bid adieu*

(Instrumental)

We have gone through excesses - Now there's more in the mix
We talk of acid reflux - instead of acid trips
Though we've had disappointments, we still hold to ideals
We're still marching and singing
We're still keeping it real

*So Happy Birthday dear friend - Happy Birthday to you
Another milestone zooming past, another year bid adieu
All the joys and the triumphs, all the pain and the tears
Shaped you into the person I will love through the years*
